

Integrity Management Technical Service

The Integrity Management Technical Service is to identify and evaluate risk factors of pipeline operation. Through various inspection methods, pipeline integrity information can be obtained and used to make corresponding measures to control risks. With the help of the integrity management technical service, the risk level of pipeline operation can be controlled within a reasonable range.

Technical Feature

- Construct or optimize integrity management system.
- Provide technologies such as lifecycle integrity management of pipeline and facilities, risk assessment, inspection and analysis of inspection data.
- Establish integrity management platform.

Service Scope

- Pipeline integrity management technical service
- Station integrity management technical service
- Technical service of tank integrity management
- Mechanical equipment safety monitoring and intelligent diagnosis technology service
- Intelligent safety early warning technology for oil and gas production

Qualification

- A consulting team of 10 professionals with more than 10-year industry experiences.
- 5 teams with extensive field experiences providing services such as inspection and anti-corrosion.
- Cooperate with advanced integrity management consulting companies and earn good reputation.

Service Performance

- More than 10 years of field technical service experiences in China.
- More than 50 comprehensive service achievements in Canada, Britain, Norway and other countries.

