

Oilfield Management Service

Oilfield management services refer to the technical services provided by service providers for oilfield owners to manage oilfield development, construction and production by providing personnel and technology. Anton has a high-quality oilfield management team combined with geological engineering and rich experience in comprehensive oilfield management, providing customers with a full range of development site management and comprehensive technical support services from capacity construction to development and production. Help customers simplify management, improve efficiency and benefits, and help customers maximize reservoir value

Service Scope and Content

- Oil and gas field capacity construction services: including capacity construction of new oil fields, capacity expansion of old oil fields, and project management;
- Oil and gas field management turnkey services: including reservoir management, oil well management, surface operation management, HSSE, logistics management, etc.;
- Oil and gas field cooperation development: oil and gas field capital cooperation, development project management, technical services for undertaking production risks
- Digital oilfield management services: information technology services, digital oilfield services, intelligent oilfield services, and oilfield Internet of Things services;
- Reservoir technical support services: Reservoir support services in all aspects of reservoir development design, development and production, and well drilling and completion;
- Oilfield operation and maintenance services: operation services for oil, gas, water treatment systems, power systems, etc., engineering maintenance services and agency procurement services;
- Supervision and supervision services: various supervision services such as earthquake, geology, drilling, test mining, well completion and surface engineering

Service Capabilities and Advantages

- Combination of geology and engineering, integration of ground and underground development management and optimization capabilities

- Professional and complete international oilfield management team and talent pool
- Complete oil and gas field management system and training system
- Advanced oil and gas field informatization, digitalization and intelligent management technology and experience
- Sufficient resources for cooperation with oil and gas equipment suppliers and global supply chain capabilities
- Efficiently integrate high-quality resources in China
- Efficient execution in difficult environments

Service Performance

- The service market is distributed in China, the Middle East, Africa, and Europe, and has won unanimous praise from the owners
- Developed dozens of oilfield management services, and safe operation of international project management exceeded 3,600 days
- A giant oil field in Iraq under management has stable production and steady growth, and HSSE has performed well, which has been highly praised by the owner

