

Supervision Service

Anton's supervision and supervision service product line provides global oilfield customers with comprehensive and professional global supervision and supervision personnel services in all production links.

Service Positioning

Anton Company has a comprehensive and international supervise and supervision service system, providing customers with professional supervision and supervision services in the process of oilfield development, production operation, engineering construction and logistics supply, and helps customers to supervise, review and manage oilfields through professional talents. All processes in the production process, streamlining the customer's personnel input and management process. Anton practices the culture of "helping others succeed" and helps customers to maximize the economic benefits and management efficiency of oil fields

Technical Advantages

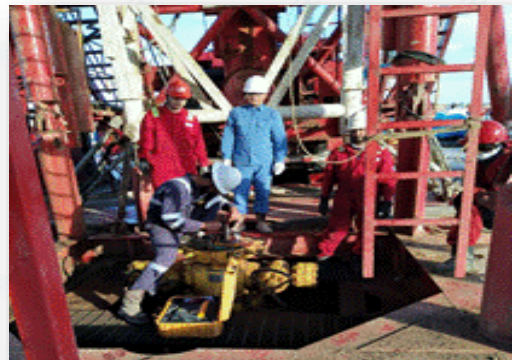

- International HSE system, management system and training system.
- Globalized multi-language, multi-ethnic service experience and business distribution.
- With 3000+ supervisory talent resource pool, it can provide talents in various languages and professions around the world
- Anton Group's oilfield geological engineering entire industrial chain, providing customers with expert technical consultation on remote reservoirs and engineering
- Quick response, hard work style

Service Capabilities

- Total contract service for integrated management of third-party personnel, single-item modular personnel contract service.
- Single professional supervision and supervision personnel service.

Service Scope

- Geological supervision services
- Drilling supervision services
- Test oil production supervision services
- Well completion supervision services
- Safety medical supervision services
- Ground engineering supervision services
- Administrative logistics procurement supervision services

Service Performance

- At present, Anton Company provides long-term supervision and supervision personnel services for National Oil Company (NOC) and International Oil Company (IOC) customers in China, Chad in Africa, Iraq in the Middle East, Albania in Europe, and Kazakhstan in Central Asia.